

NANCY WYNNE TALKS ABOUT SONG RECITAL TO BE GIVEN AT ACORN CLUB

Miss Augustine Houghton Will Sing at the Acorn on February 16 for the Benefit of Mrs. Hunter Scarlett's Work in Paris for the Wounded Soldiers

SOCIETY will undoubtedly be interested in the song recital to be given by Miss Augustine Houghton on the afternoon of Wednesday, February 16, at 8 o'clock, in the Acorn Club, for the benefit of Mrs. Hunter Scarlett's work in Paris for the wounded soldiers.

Her before the Bal Masque on Tuesday, March 7. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards F. Leiper, of the Episcopal Hospital, will give a dance this evening for their son, Mr. Edwards F. Leiper, Jr., a student at Yale.

Numerous dinners and theatre parties on Saturday night wound up what was an extremely busy week with the Riddle ball, the midwinter ball and the smart Junior League affair, not to mention a number of other entertainments which, while not so large, were of considerable importance.

The Supper Club was particularly lively on Saturday evening because of several large parties, one of which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wain Meigs for Marian Grant and Rachel Fidler.

The Jesse Williamsons entertained for Agnes Brockie, their guests including Sarah Franklin, Margaret Berwind, Elizabeth Wister, Lisa Norris, Salvador Meade, Saunders Meade, Dick Bullitt and the Edgar Howards.

The Horace Eugene Smiths also had several guests. A broken arm does not appear to phase Edith, as she braved the crowded floor with it bound up daintily in a blue silk sling, although the youth with her was very solicitous over it.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Griswold Flagg, M. were "among those present," as were the Roddy Pages, Theodore Voorles, the Eaton Cromwells, Eugenie Casati, the Francis Kembles, Kombe Yarrow, Thomas Earle Whites, Rittenhouse Millers, Walter Jeffords, Hal Parsons, Tevis Hubns, George Munsons, Marilana Gowen, Geoffrey Tower, Jack Potter and Billy Peffer. A feature of the evening was the clever skating dance executed by professionals from New York.

FIFTH ANNUAL DOG SHOW TO BE GIVEN LAST DAYS OF THIS MONTH

Society Is Interested in Kennel Club's Show to be Given February 28 and 29 for Benefit of Charity. Brilliant Affair Anticipated

THE Kennel Club of Philadelphia will hold its fifth annual Dog Show, again for charity, on February 28 and 29, at 233 and Chestnut streets. This year the Child Federation Health Centre will be the beneficiary.

The officers are working very industriously to make this exhibition even greater than last year, when they had the second largest show in the United States, having been exceeded only by the New York show.

The patronesses include Mrs. Alfred Stengel, Miss Alice M. Biddle, Mrs. Henry C. Boyer, Mrs. John G. Clark, Mrs. C. H. Ludington, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Mrs. Thomas Hobbs and Mrs. Alexander H. Rice.

The officers of the club are: Mrs. John Slinott, president; Mr. Charles R. Wood, first vice president; Mr. Robert Hughes, second vice president; Mr. George W. Widener, third vice president, and Mr. J. Chandler Barnard, secretary and treasurer.

The Three Arts Club of the City of Philadelphia, 259 South 17th street, will hold its first benefit at the Forrest and the Broad Street Theatres on the nights of February 13 and 14. The proceeds of this combined benefit is to raise funds in order to exploit the work of the club.

Among those prominent in promoting the affair are the Right Rev. Philip Mercier Rhinelanders, Miss Cecelia Beaux, Mr. John Wanamaker, Mr. Carrol Beckwith, Mr. John J. Boyle, Mr. Guglielmo Caruso, Mrs. J. Harry Phillips, Miss Emily Stanton, Mrs. C. Oram Ring, Mrs. H. Emmott Hare, Mrs. Austin S. Heckscher, Mrs. Thomas H. Fenton, Miss Ariadne Holmes Edwards, Mrs. A. Edward Newton, Mrs. John M. O'Brien, Miss Mary Ewing Taylor, Miss Helene Maynard White, Miss Harriet Sartain and Mrs. Charles F. Weber.

The Three Arts Club is an organization where young women students and patrons of the three arts, music, painting and the drama, will find home life with club privileges.
